

Ferrets are sneaky animals that enjoy stealing eye-catching possessions. They also have a strong, unpleasant smell because of their glands.

Sugar Gliders are nocturnal animals, who need a fresh diet of fruits, vegetables, insects, and vitamins every night. They are social creatures, so if they do not have a friend, they need extra attention from their owners.

